Torch Run – The goal for 2008 is to raise $1 million dollars here in the state of Kentucky.

BUILDING COMMITTEE

It was reported in the March issue of the newsletter, that the Building Committee was exploring the site of the old Keyhole Bar in Bromley, KY as a site for the new lodge hall.

Regretfully, the property was found to be unsuitable, both logistically and fiscally for the lodge to pursue the possibility of purchasing the property. The property has been sold to another buyer.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER AT THE APRIL MEETING

State Representative Alecia Webb-Edgington, formerly the Director of the Kentucky office of Homeland Security and a retired Kentucky State Police Major, has requested that she return to speak before the body of the lodge at the April meeting to discuss various legislation affecting law enforcement and retirees.

At the March lodge meeting, Webb-Edgington a motion was passed by Lodge #20 to recommend that the Kentucky State FOP Lodge endorse her as the State Representative of the 63rd District (Kenton County) in the May primary elections for the seat vacated by Jon Draud who was recently appointed Kentucky Education Commissioner.
