OTHER TIDBITS

1. Speakers at the April meeting were candidates for the Kenton County District Judge were:

- Ken Easterling
- Mary Fortner Rafizadeh

2. We are still negotiating with different locations so that we can restart our lodge bingo, but nothing has been finalized yet.

3. The national FOP has new license plate medallions for sale. If you are interested in purchasing one, please contact one of the Executive Board.

MEMBERSHIP

At the April meeting, there was the first reading for seven new applicants for Active membership to the lodge.

There were four applicants approved during their second reading and awaiting initiation. Their second reading will be at the May meeting.

NO SMOKING MOTION PASSED

A motion was passed at the April meeting by the body of the lodge to ban smoking during the monthly meetings. The ban only extends to the meeting room during business meetings.

MAY IS POLICE MEMORIAL MONTH

During the month of May 2008, there will be several memorials to law enforcement officers who have given their lives in the line of duty. Please attend one or all to show your support.

- 1) May 5th – Frankfort, KY – Kenton Co. Sheriff Korzenborn will be playing "Taps" for the event. Former FOPA Secretary Bill Salyers Sr. will also be recognized at the event.
- 2) May 12th - Cincinnati, OH
